99			Opinion on Confirmation of Eighth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court err by deciding the constitutional question of whether pensions could be impaired when consistent with the Tenth Amendment that question should have been avoided?
2. Did the Bankruptcy Court err as a matter of law by confirming the Plan when the Court's consent analysis conflicted with Section 903 of the Code and the Supreme Court's decision in Bond v United States?
3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in confirming the Plan when dismissal of the case would have resulted in a greater recovery for retirees under state law remedies?
4. Did the Bankruptcy Court err as a matter of law by confirming the Plan even though, by attempting to impose the ASF recoupment on claims whose retiree holders have not individually agreed to its application to their claims, the Plan imposes non-consensual less favorable treatment on those claims than on other claims in class 11, in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a) (4)?
5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err as a matter of law by confirming the Plan even though it purports to adjust not only the City's liability, if any, on the claims included in Class 11, but also GRS's liability on those claims, in violation of 11 U.S.C. § 941?
